HOPE ABANDONED FOR SAFETY OF HAWKER AND COMPANION - BRITISHERS PLANNING FLIGHT

IRISH DELEGATES SEEK INTERVIEW WITH PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press)
Paris, May 21.—The American representatives of Irish Societies who are now in Paris, have requested President Wilson to give them a personal hearing on the application they desire to have made to the British government for permission for Edward De Valera and other Sinn Féin leaders to come to Paris to present Ireland's case to the peace conference. Their request was originally made to Secretary of State Lansing and by him referred to the President. A Paris dispatch reported that the request would be transmitted to the British authorities but that a refusal on the part of the British government was anticipated.

St. John, N. F., May 21.—Hope for the safety of Harry Hawker and Commander Mackenzie Grieve, missing since they set out Sunday in their Sopwith biplane for Ireland, was virtually abandoned today by the British fliers preparing here to take wing in their wake. Undaunted by the Sopwith's disappearance, members of the other expedition today continued to make plans for the flight with the next full moon three weeks hence.

EXPRESS TRAIN WRECKED—FOUR CARS DERAILED

(By Associated Press)
West Mystic, Conn., May 21.—Four cars of an express train from Boston to New York, running locally from Westerly, R. I., to New London, over the Shore Line division of the New Haven Railroad, were derailed and toppled over an embankment here this morning. No person was hurt. Railroad men express the opinion that a rail broke under the engine. The passenger coaches were not disturbed.

PERSHING ABANDONS LONDON TRIP

(By Associated Press)
Paris, May 21.—In addition to the abandonment of Gen. Pershing's visit to London, several of the higher American officers and certain members of the American peace mission according to reports, have given up the idea of a return to America in the near future.

STRAWBERRY BANK GRANGE

The next regular meeting of Strawberry Bank Grange will be held in Grange Hall, May 22, at 8 o'clock. All patrons are cordially invited to be present.

(By the Associated Press)
Berlin, Tuesday, May 20.—"And the German people demand nothing more than that which President Wilson announced in this declaration. We demand nothing more than that Americans place the 14 points opposite the peace terms. We do not believe that anyone in the United States will then have the courage to claim that there can be found in the peace conditions one single trace left of President Wilson's program, and here begins America's definite duty to step in. America either must put its 14 points through, or it must declare that it is unable to do so, or that it does not want to do so, so that in no case may the world be led to believe that America desires to have the peace conditions count as President Wilson's 14 points. That is our demand to which we cling and we cannot imagine what argument from the American side would be effective against it."

While the definite statement that Germany will not sign the peace terms is made by the German cabinet through the Associated Press, Germany's representatives are still endeavoring to secure modification of the terms. The tenth note from the Germans since they received the terms was forwarded yesterday to the Secretary of the Peace Conference. The 15 day time limit for them to make known their standpoint expires tomorrow. Up to yesterday at least the prevalent opinion in Paris was that notwithstanding their protests they ultimately would sign the treaty. Today they asked for an extension of time. Premier Orlando, of Italy, has gone to Rome for a conference with members of the cabinet on "certain interior and foreign questions." It seems probable, therefore, that the peace terms will not be presented to the Austrian delegation before Friday when he is due to return to Paris. In view of the fact that every effort has been made to bring about an agreement on the Plume-Dalmatian question before the peace terms are laid before the Austrian mission it may be assumed that Orlando's trip indicates some new development in the work of adjusting the situation.

Paris, May 21.—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, has asked an extension of time for Germany to present her reply regarding the peace terms. He stated that further notes were being prepared and that it would be impossible to complete them by 1 p. m. Thursday, when the time limit is up. It is believed, says the Havas agency, that the request for extension will be granted.

Geneva, Tuesday, May 20.—The allied and associated governments yesterday asked the Swiss Federal Council if it was ready to take rigorous measures concerning the blockade if Germany should refuse to sign the peace treaty, according to the Swiss Telegraph Agency. "This means," says the agency "that the allies desire to know whether Switzerland will consent to prohibit exports from and imports into Germany except those permitted by the allies during the war. The object of the allies is to avoid misunderstanding about future restrictions on importations into Switzerland in the event of the Germans declining to sign the peace treaty. The Federal authorities are examining the note and will reply to it shortly."

Berlin, Tuesday, May 20.—"Germany declines to sign the peace treaty laid before it because they spell the economic destruction, political dishonor and moral degradation of the entire German nation not only for the present but also for still unborn generations" was a statement authorized by the cabinet this morning through the Associated Press. "That these consequences must logically follow the acceptance of the peace conditions the American press itself has recognized without question," the statement continues. "Toward them Germany takes the standpoint that acceptance of such conditions could not be demanded and that the Entente was unjustified in imposing such demands. Germany concluded peace on the basis of President Wilson's 14 points which all America had made its own and all America, every individual, is responsible for the fulfillment of its scheme. It is not the German people's business to indicate how its rights shall be realized by the 14 points, that rather is the task of those who constructed the 14 points and from those they were accepted, thereby inducing Germany to lay down her weapons. We do not believe that President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and the American people can

HUNS MUST GIVE DECISION BY TOMORROW

(By Associated Press)

Before Thursday of this week, the German Peace Delegation at Versailles are to make known to the Allied and associated powers what points of their peace treaty they agree upon and on what points they object to.

Thursday will be the time limit given the Germans to consider the terms offered them by the Allied and Associated powers and to make known their objections. No time extension has been granted or asked. They are expected to present a big volume of objections, why they will be unable to sign the treaty unless the terms are modified.

Although the leaders of Germans though are declaring that the terms of the treaty are impossible and they will not be able to sign, the impression in Paris is that after the Allied and Associated governments have had a chance to study the objections of the Germans and modify or reject them, then the Germans will sign the treaty.

Marshal Foch is not taking any chances on what the peace delegation at Versailles will do, and he has made a tour of the occupied territory and made his plans, in case they refuse to sign and communicated them to the Council of Four.

Likewise General Pershing, the American Commander-in-Chief, is wide awake to the situation. He has indefinitely postponed a trip to London during which he was to be the guest of the British nation, so that he may remain on the Rhine, until the treaty is either accepted or rejected.

American financial experts are still in discussion with the Germans at Versailles, but principally with the question of the ability of the Germans to pay for the food supplies.

This reply of the Council of Four to the German note that reparations be separated from responsibility of the war, the Council state that it is impossible, and also that the present government or people of Germany can not disclaim responsibility for the crimes of the former government.

STILL NO TRACE OF HAWKER

London, May 20, 11:00 P. M.—Up to this hour no word has been received of Harry Hawker and his navigator Grieve, from any of the agencies seeking to get some definite information as to the fate of the two gallant aviators. None of the aeroplanes, destroyers, minesweepers and other ships who have been sweeping the sea about the coast of Ireland have found anything that indicates that Hawker ever got as far as the Irish coast.

Ponta Delgada, May 20—Lt. Commander A. C. Reed U. S. N. in the NC-4, which arrived this afternoon from Horta, expects to start for Lisbon at six o'clock tomorrow morning. The NC-4, which was definitely made the sole reliance of the American navy to make the remainder of the Atlantic ocean trip, through the sinking of the NC-3, in preparation to shipping it back to the United States. The flight back to Lisbon the last big ocean leg of the journey to England, will peacefully complete the transatlantic flight and Commander Reed has every confidence of being able to make the trip in record time.

TAFT DEFENDS TREATY TERMS AS JUST

(By Associated Press)

Boston, May 20—Former President William Howard Taft vigorously defended the peace treaty terms presented to the Germans at Versailles at the meeting of the Unitarians here today. It was after a resolution had been offered by Rev. Henry W. Plakham attack the treaty on the ground that it would not make a lasting peace and that it was too harsh. Mr. Taft said that the wages of sin is death and in his opinion after Germany had violated all rules of humanity, they should be brought to their knees and kept there until properly penitent.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS ARE IN HARMONY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 20—Possibility that the Progressive ranks of the Republican party in the senate might take no part in the senate committee, was dispelled today by the appointment of Senator Lodge of Maine of Oregon and Gronna of North Dakota, both members of the progressive wing, to places on the committee on committees and the acceptance by the two senators. It is believed that it was the difference over this committee, that caused Senators Borah, Johnson and Kenyon to refuse to accept positions on the committee, but all this has now been adjusted.

DIVERS SEARCH FOR OSTRIDGE'S BODY

Chatham, May 20—Divers were sent down today on the scene of the collapse of the seaplane which caused two deaths just off Orleans yesterday in an attempt to locate the body of Lt. Ostridge was drowned with Quartermaster Herbert Martensline of Reading, P. Ensign Everett P. Welch, the third member of the crew was rescued. The plane fell into the ocean about a mile east of the Orleans coast guard station.

AN ARMY OFFICER ON BABYING OF MEN

Colonel William J. Donovan, U. S. A., issued a statement in New York the other day in which he said: "The patronizing, babying tactics that are being employed by many towards the soldier and sailor" it makes them soft and they do not like the coddling etc. A real sailor said to a Herald reporter on Monday, we are not children; we are real men and want to be treated as such.

"Lapdog Patriotism."

(From the New York Sun)
No citizen who had not served in the army or navy would dare to talk as Colonel William J. Donovan, of the old Sixty-ninth Regiment talks about the petting and coddling by soldiers and non-combatants of men discharged from the services. To call the possibly exaggerated tenderness with which the former fighting men are treated "lapdog patriotism" is a bold thing for any man, even a man affectionately called Wild Bill, to do.

Colonel Donovan feels that the men with gray hair, morally babyed, under the "patronizing, babying" tactics that are being employed by many toward the returned soldier. He speaks for the officers of money and entertainment made to returned soldiers, too much emphasis laid on the sacrifices they have made, talk about the nobility of the world eyes them. He fears the men may be demoralized by their reception.

We do not share Colonel Donovan's gloomy opinion. The natural desire of all Americans to show their respect and admiration for their fighting men may have taken an unfortunate turn in some cases, but the period of regrettable excesses will not last long, and comparatively few men will be subjected to its influence. Not all those who are exposed to its debilitating effect will be deceived as to its true significance.

The men coming out of the army are happily free from delusions concerning their future. They accept the applause that is given to them at what it is worth—and it is worth something—and ask for jobs. They do not undervalue their mantle of heroism, but they do not undervalue the value of steady work either. If some individuals want to be silly about them they do not intend to be silly about themselves. Colonel Donovan should cheer up. The worst is not yet to come.

SEN. MOSES INTRODUCES A GOOD BILL

Under a bill introduced by Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, the victims of the influenza epidemic who died in circumstances last fall before they could avail themselves of the privilege of war insurance, will receive indemnity for their families in the sum of $5,000. Senator Moses says that many of the drafted boys who were called and put under army regulations were exposed to the epidemic at a time of year when the change from domestic to camp life made them especially susceptible to the ravages of influenza, and it is their no fault of their own that they are unable to avail themselves of the insurance privileges before they were stricken. A narrow, and as the Senator believes, an unjustified construction of the law has hitherto prevented the families of these boys from receiving the benefits of insurance as the law clearly intended, and his bill will remedy this condition.

The Moses bill also provides that beneficiaries under all policies of War Risk Insurance may have the option common to other life insurance policies of receiving the sum due either in monthly payments as now made or in a full lump sum.

RAYNHAM SAYS HE IS STILL IN THE RACE

St. John's, May 20—Frederick P. He was out today for the first time after he was injured and said that he thought he could rebuild his machine with spare parts. Capt. Morgan his navigator will not be his part-

AT HOW MUCH DO YOU VALUE YOUR BOY?

You love him of course—he's your boy. But do you care for him ungrudgingly, unselfishly, when you buy him clothes or shoes do you get as good proportionately as you do for yourself or as good as your pocketbook will allow? Or do you think that because he's a boy and goes through things quickly, that any old thing will do?

WATCH HIS FEET

A boy takes a thousand steps a day to your aid. Don't you think he feels the roughness and inequalities of cheap shoes?

Think of the harm to growing feet caused by cheap or imperfect footwear; most foot troubles such as corns, bunions, ingrowing toe nails, etc., may be attributed to improper shoes or the way they are fitted. Therefore, don't your boy's feet, both for now and for the future, mean something to you?

BUY HIM GOOD SHOES

Buy your boy good shoes, whether you buy of us or elsewhere; he'll thank you for it some day. It's also economy in the end.

IT'S UP TO YOU

As shoe merchants we are in a position unexcelled by any house in New England to give your boys good shoes at reasonable prices. We take a personal interest in every boy that comes into the store; we want him used right in every way, and we'll go out of our way to do it. May we serve your boy?

Portsmouth, N. H., Wednesday, May 21, 1919.

A Timely and Merited Defense.

For a long time there has been complaint in many cities of the increase in rents. Those making the complaints have talked about extortion, "profiteering," and all that sort of thing, as if the landlords were improving an opportunity to rob their tenants. They seem to have overlooked the fact that the increased cost of labor and all materials that go into the erection and upkeep of buildings could not fail to have its effect in the matter of rents, and for this reason much of the complaint, while undoubtedly sincere, has been thoughtless and ill-grounded.

In view of the conditions and the public feeling on the subject a statement issued by the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange is timely and to the point. In this statement it is shown that the charges against gross income from real estate have increased about 60 per cent in the last six years. The wages of all building mechanics have increased very largely during that time and the same is true of the cost of all building materials. Further, interest rates and taxes have gone steadily upward, insurance rates have advanced and all the conditions are such that tenants cannot be rented at the old rates if their owners are to break even.

No fair-minded person can take exception to the following from the statement made by the Real Estate Exchange: "There may be cases of extortion, just as there have been cases of profiteering in nearly every other line of business, not excluding labor, but, applying to real estate the schedule of higher prices which have prevailed in all other lines, it is plain to be seen that an increase in rentals in most cases is only equitable."

There is no getting away from the facts here set forth. Everybody knows that it costs a great deal more to build or maintain a house now than it did a few years ago, and why, under these circumstances, should any one expect rents to remain at the old figures? Certainly men engaged in the building trades should have no difficulty in comprehending the situation.

The fact is that these complaints about increasing rentals are in most cases wholly unjustified. There may be cases, as the Exchange says, in which rents have been raised unduly, but for the most part the advances have been due to increased costs of building and maintenance, and the landlords' net income is no greater than it was before the period of inflation, or "prosperity," whichever one chooses to call it.

The Real Estate Exchange says a decrease in the cost of government, and hence in the rate of taxation, would be an important feature in helping to keep rents on a normal basis, and adds that "as soon as people thoroughly realize that the cost of government reacts on the individual, whether he is a taxpayer or a rent payer, the greater will be the public demand for prudent, efficient and economical management of our municipalities."

There is truth in every line of this statement, as thinking people will have to admit. Wherever there may be profiteering in rents the practice is to be condemned, and should be punished; but that landlords as a whole are taking unfair advantage of their tenants is not true, and it is time that this fact should be recognized.

According to Representative Mondell the program for the coming session of Congress will include "immediate repeal of the tax on semi-luxuries, legislation for the return of telephone and telegraph companies to private control, railroad legislation, determination of a national shipping policy, passage of the woman's suffrage amendment, inauguration of a budget system, means of reducing government expenses, tariff legislation and measures benefiting soldiers and sailors." It is also said that the lawmakers may be ready to "compromise" on prohibition. No wonder it is predicted that the session may continue unbroken until 1920.

Charles Piez, the retired general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, said in an address at Chicago the other day that he had been "permanently cured of any embryonic leanings toward government ownership he might have entertained formerly." And it is safe to say that the same is true of many other citizens.

American and British officers in Berlin have been warned to wear civilian clothing when they appear in public. This would indicate that the Germans have seen all they want of the uniforms the Americans and British wear.

Neither Henry Ford nor the Chicago Tribune needs the advertising that will accrue from the former's libel suit against the latter. And in most cases free advertising is about all that comes out of libel suits.

The second installment of income taxes will be due June 16, and those having such taxes to pay will do well to bear in mind that there will be no ten days of grace.

SAYS PRESIDENT "PASSES BUCK" TO CONGRESS IN URGING REPEAL

Washington, May 21.—While many of the Massachusetts members of Congress are in hearty sympathy with repeal of the war-time prohibition act, insofar as it relates to beer and light wines, the manner in which the President makes the suggestion has so offended them that they may vote against repeal as a rebuke to him.

"He is passing the buck to us," said one Massachusetts member last night, who would not allow his name to be used. "He is as much responsible for the war-time prohibition as Congress is, because he signed the bill, but fear of reaction he now tries to wash his hands of it."

The part of the President's message referring to prohibition was as follows:

"The demobilization of the military forces of the country has progressed to such a point that it seems to me entirely safe now to remove the ban upon the manufacture and sale of wines and beers, but I am advised that without further legislation I have not the legal authority to remove the present restrictions. I, therefore, recommend that the act approved November 21, 1918, entitled 'An Act to Enable the Secretary of Agriculture to Carry Out, During the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1919, the Purpose of the Act Entitled 'An Act to Provide Further for the National Security and Defense by Stimulating Agriculture and Facilitating the Distribution of Agricultural Products,' and for Other Purposes' be amended or repealed insofar as it applies to wines and beers."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

What People Better Qualified?

 "Only an idiot would sign such a peace," snorts Herr Graf in the Prussian Assembly. Well, I am for the right, gentlemen; William Hohenzollern first. No crowding please."

New Measure Needed
 (From the New York World)
 Discrepancies in the stated distance between Trepansey Bay and the Azores may be attributed to the difference between sea miles and land miles. There are no air miles yet; the plane must measure by the element it spurns.

A Souvenir of France
 (From the Washington Star)
 Washingtonians, in their celebration of pushing the Victory Loan, danced on the Avenue Thursday night. An open space was cleared in the densely packed crowd, a soldier boy and his daddy and his baby swung into that circle and others followed. It was a spontaneous, a novel and natural way of celebrating. A novelty here, where joyousness too often takes the form of mere discord, but a normal procedure in the towns and villages of France. One wonders if, among the many convicts our boys have brought back with them, Thursday's spontaneity of gladness may not have been one of their trophies of the heart, picked up in a little French village.

An Exploited Idea
 (From the Buffalo News)
 Not so long ago it used to be the fashion to talk in terms of Government ownership when ever error was discovered in the operations of big business—particularly the public utilities. The idea of Government ownership was a passing fancy of the good old, quackish days.

Now, however, a word of the idea—except to curse it. When thinking about it, we come to it. The Government has made many experiments, but never one so costly as this. Every public utility that the Government has taken charge of is showing a deficit. The railroads, notwithstanding, have been boosted way up among the planets, are duly running farther and farther into the hole. Under Government control of the telegraph systems up go rates, and down goes service. And with increased rates there is a deficit.

Wherefore, the people may Congress as soon as possible to provide for the return of everything the Administration has taken charge of back to the original owners with thanks.

Leninism in Winnipeg
 (From the New York Times)

In support of the metal workers and building trades a sympathetic strike, affecting some 30,000 trade unionists, was ordered last week by the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council. This general strike is said to be approved by the returned soldiers. In that case the Dominion authorities may be a little tender on political grounds. Of the merits of the controversy there is no judgment to be passed at this distance. It is the agitation stirred by the business agent of the strikers that interests outsiders in the Winnipeg labor troubles.

There shall be no more newspapers until we decide to let them appear. We know the effect that a newspaper has in molding public opinion, and that in the past such opinion has been molded against our cause. We realize that had we left the press open it would have taken advantage of the hard situation by trying to show the public that the strikers were weakening in their position by the opening of food depots.

So the press was closed. The next step should be the publication of papers devoted passionately to the proletariat. All others should be prohibited permanently. This is the Leninist, then, new autocratic method of dealing with the press. The Alexanders and Big and Little Napoleons were afraid of a public opinion not molded by themselves and sought to gag it. The contemporary Red plan of attacking absolutely all unfriendly voices, of stifling the freedom of the press to the freedom of lauding the proletarian autocrats, is cooler, more thorough, than the autocrats of the throne, born to the purple, or usurpers were able to maintain effectively. By the side of the Lenins and the Trotskys and their brief imitators in Germany, the earlier autocracy looks almost tolerant, liberal. A silenced press, however, is an important, produced that is not likely to prove itself hardy in Manitoba.

Bread: A Democratic Menace
 (From the Chicago Times-Star, Rep.)
 Somebody is making a profit—just even experts differ as to just who that somebody is. Certainly very little, if any, of the gain is going to the man who produces the wheat.

While the war lasted the Food Administration did a great work. There is no doubt of that. Without Government control there would have been wild speculation in 1917 and 1918. We might have had $5 or $6 wheat, with fabulous prices for bread. The Food Administration prevented this, and in doing so helped to stabilize conditions and to win the war.

But this spring there has been a slip somewhere in the machinery. When his 1918 crop was harvested, the farmer was given to understand that he might as well sell at once, as $2.20 a bushel, or a little less, was all he could expect to get for his wheat. Practically all the farmers accepted this statement as fact and marketed their wheat. But now the farmer hears of the sale of wheat at $3.55 or $2.20 a bushel, and doesn't know what to make of it.

The present prices for wheat are satisfactory neither to producer nor consumer. The situation is full of political danger for the Democratic party—which fact, in itself, is not enough to bring tears to the eyes of many of us. It is important, however, that somebody is making a wrongful profit out of the people because of present-day wheat prices. The Government ought to do something about it.

"Salvation Army Needs No Commendation from Me," Says President Wilson.

The following greatly cherished message has been received, through Colonel Barker, at the National Headquarters by cable from our honored President:

"I am very much interested to know that The Salvation Army is about to enter into a Campaign for a sustaining fund. I feel that The Salvation Army needs no commendation from me. The love and gratitude it has elicited from the troops is a sufficient evidence of the work it has done, and I feel that I should not so much commend it as congratulate it.

PLEASANT SOCIAL GIVEN BY FOUR LEAF CLOVER SOCIETY

The Four Leaf Clover society held its monthly business meeting and social Tuesday evening in the vestry and it was an especially pleasant gathering.

At the business session the annual election of officers took place as follows:

President, Mrs. Mildred Caswell. Vice president, Mrs. Everett Seavey. Secretary, Mrs. Maybelle Dame. Treasurer, L. Goodwin Griffin. It was voted to have a public supper on same date in June.

At the adjournment of the business session a social was enjoyed. The vestry was given a festive air by streamers of crepe paper. Tables were arranged in the center of the vestry and on these were games of various kinds. On each table was a post card cut in pieces and these had to be put together so that each participant in the games could find his or her partner, each card also telling the table when the person should play.

Various kinds of games were played at the tables and keen enjoyment resulted from the diversions.

Refreshments of sandwiches, assorted cake and hot coffee were served after the games. On a table at the front of the vestry was a birthday cake in recognition of the sixth anniversary of the Four Leaf Clover club, on this being six lighted tapers.

The committee in charge of the affair was Mrs. Jane Dawson, Mrs. Edward Seavey, Mrs. Maybelle Dame, Mrs. Marion Pauls and Mrs. Mildred Caswell.

LOCAL CHURCH GOES OVER THE TOP IN CENTENARY DRIVE

At the supper served last evening at the First Methodist church at 6.30 o'clock there were about 40 of the centenary workers who have been engaged in rounding up the centenary subscriptions—as has already been reported. The Portsmouth church went well over the top last Sunday evening and more pledges have since been made. Its quota was $1775, a year for five years, making the sum total for the five years $8875.

Up to date the people of the church have subscribed $2139, for this coming year and for the few years considerably more than the $8875 apportioned.

The Portsmouth Methodist church was among the first of the New England area and the Dover District second, to go over the top. It certainly speaks well for the splendid spirit of the Portsmouth people and the state of New Hampshire. The local Methodist society has a record for achievement of which it may well be proud and it well deserves favorable comment.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE GOING SLOW

The second day of the Salvation Army drive under the auspices of the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks, brought some better results than the first day, but there is still much to be wished for. It is the same old story, in some places everybody is generous and gives all that the collectors think they should give, while others want to get by with the twenty-five and fifty cent offering and then there are the ever present class who will not give anything.

They are known to every war worker in the city, and they are approached as a matter of form, not with any idea that they will loosen up and give to a worthy cause.

The personal experiences of the men who have been through all of the great drives during the war, would be very interested if they could be related. They would describe those who think that the collector is getting more than fifty-fifty of the collection, to those who don't believe there is a war and see no reasons for the welfare agencies.

The members of the Elks were pretty busy on Tuesday and by night-fall they had the business section pretty well cleared up. From the navy yard came encouraging reports and the game is true of the ship yards and other industries. Manager John Dow of dance fame, is featuring a big New York jazz orchestra which is touring New England and is giving a generous share of the receipts to the Salvation Army fund. It is at Freeman's hall Saturday night.

FIREMEN PLAN FOR MEMORIAL SUNDAY

Committees were appointed to select the church and other plans.

OLD PAPERS FOUND IN FARM BARN

Messrs. Archibald and Dryden, who own the old March farm in Greenland, this week in making repairs on the big barn on the farm, discovered tucked away under the eaves of the barn—evidently placed there when the barn was either built or being renovated, three newspapers, (The Portsmouth Chronicle of Sept. 28, 1863, The Boston Morning Journal of Sept. 23, 1863, and the New York Times of Sept. 27, 1863. All three papers are very well preserved and were evidently selected on account of their war news. They all had interesting war news, the Times featuring the Battle of Chancellorsville.

In the Chronicle the bank statements were printed on that date and they are an interesting contrast to the statements issued during the past heavy wagon drawn by the horse passed over his body rendering him nearly unconscious. He was rushed to the Portsmouth Hospital for treatment. His bones broken but Mr. Cannon is injured internally and last night was on the dangerous list.

Portsmouth dancers are getting the best there is in dance music and the latest offering of Mr. Dow, the Strand orchestra, may be well classed with the best that has appeared in this city.

There was a big crowd of dancers and a fair crowd in the gallery for its first appearance and judging from the comment of the audience the organization promises to rival the McEnelly orchestra, which has been such a tremendous drawing card.

SHOULD IMPROVE FARM HELP

Alcohol Accumulates from Fermenting Corn and Thrift Persons Tap Building, so Farmer Removes Temptation (From the Philadelphia No. American).
Former Assistant Attorney General Harpending of Starkey, N. Y., one of its most prominent farmers and domestic animal breeders, has torn down the silo on his stock farm.

It is a well-known fact that the corn fermentation to be found in liquid form in the bottoms of silos is very intoxicating, owing to the large amount of alcoholic therein.

Obtaining alcoholic drink from this source is getting to be so common in this section that Harpending, not wishing to be in the slightest degree responsible for a condition which might promote intoxication, is dispensing with silos altogether.

It is said his example will be followed by other Yates county, N. Y., farmers, and an attempt will be made to find other milk-producing foods to take the place of silage.

MAY DROP NAME "KINDERGARTEN"

Baltimore, May 20—The International Kindergarten Union today discussed the question, "Is it advisable to change the name of kindergarten?" The question was raised because of the German origin of the name.

BIG LIST OF JURY CASES IN SUPERIOR COURT

The May term of the Superior court opened at Exeter on Tuesday with Judge Sawyer presiding. The grand jury reported and began hearing cases and the greater part of the day's session of the court was taken in reading the docket and making up the calendar. The list of trial cases is exceptionally large and it looks as though the jury would be busy for weeks. There are upwards of twenty odd jury cases on the Portsmouth list and two weeks of the court will be held in this city. The Portsmouth criminal cases will be presented to the grand jury today.

BIG CROP OF HAY LOOKED FOR

There is every indication that there will be a hay crop this summer, that will exceed all previous years. There has been so much rain that grass has taken a wonderful start and with warm weather and an occasional rain storm it will be a bumper crop. Wonder if it will lower the price of milk.

NOTICE DISCHARGED SERVICE MEN.

In order that the Portsmouth men who have been discharged from service since February 21st may be honored at the Demobilization Service Portsmouth Theatre, on the evening of Decoration Day, it will be necessary to have their names sent to the War Camp Community Service office, 20 New Hampshire National Bank Building, as soon as possible. Such action will insure their representation by a star on the Municipal Service flag.

VICTORY LOAN TOTAL EARLY NEXT WEEK

Washington, May 20.—This was the last day for banks throughout the country to report Victory Liberty Loan subscriptions to the federal reserve banks of their respective districts. Tomorrow the reserve banks will begin to compile these reports, and the Treasury expects to determine the nation's total subscriptions to the loan early next week.

EXPERIMENT IN YOUNG ORCHARDS

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H., May 20.—A complete reorganization of the horticultural work at the New Hampshire Experiment station is taking place this year which involves the location on an upland territory of a commercial and experimental young orchard and small-fruit farm.

Hitherto the bulk of this work has had to be carried on in the low-lying land near the college buildings, where the clayish soil not only presented a handicap for proper cultivation but where the results obtained were not applicable to the general orchard problems of the state-at-large. With this fact in mind the college authorities secured some half-mile from the campus the highest hill-farm in the town of Durham, which is now called the horticultural farm, and where ten acres of young trees, a vineyard, and an acre of small-fruit is being set out.

It is planned to make this farm as far as possible an exemplary one, where not only the students but the people of the state may come and study the application of the latest scientific methods in fruit and vegetable culture. Under the direction of J. K. Gourley, Station Horticulturist, the farm is being planted with selected varieties of apple, pear, plum, cherry and peach trees and with rows of strawberries, raspberries, blackberries and grapes. Various fertilizer experiments are being conducted to supplement the work done with apples, and experiment is under way to show the comparative advantages of the "open-head," "semi-leader," and "full-leader" types of pruning. One of the orchards is devoted to three-year old Northern Spy and McIntosh Red trees.

Seven one-eighth acre plots are being used in mature, fertilizer and cover-crop experiments with vegetables to show the comparative values of these alone and in combination. The value of lime in the vegetable garden is also being tested out. This year the experiment is conducted with sweet corn, and next year potatoes will probably be used.

"The work of the Horticultural Department is branching out in a manner that was impossible under the former cramped and unsatisfactory conditions," says Professor Gourley, and we hope to have a farm here where every fruit-grower and market-gardener in the state will find inspiration and help in meeting the problems of his business.

DOVER

Dover, May 21.—Practically every business establishment in Dover will be closed on the afternoon of Wednesday, June 4. With the exception of two or three of the merchants all have agreed to close on Wednesday afternoon for the remainder of the summer season. This action followed the circulation of a petition by the retail clerks asking that this demand be granted.

The former members of the Fourth company, C. A. C., will meet at the state armory on Wednesday evening, when a permanent organization of a military association may be perfected. The committee chosen at a preliminary meeting will meet this evening at the armory at 7:30 o'clock, when they will make their report about the formation.

William Rhinbold, the well known and popular ball player of this city, has signed with Manager Fred Parrott of the Lexington team of the New England league to play in the outfield and has reported for duty.

The members of Mount Washington lodge will hold a supper and entertainment at Pythian castle Thursday evening.

The Dover high school baseball team will meet Farmington high school team at Central park this afternoon. The local team will play New Hampshire state college freshmen at Durham on Thursday afternoon and will play their final game with Exeter high at Central Park on Saturday afternoon.

Frank Monahan, the popular assistant trainer at the Walter R. Cox stable at Granite State park, has resigned to accept a position with the Laurel Hill farm at Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Monahan has been an assistant to Mr. Cox for 13 years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Greenaway and daughter of Portsmouth were in Dover Sunday visiting Mr. Greenaway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greenaway at 106 Central ave.

Roland Chesley of Northwood was a Dover visitor Tuesday.

Lieut. Charles C. Crowley of the quartermaster's department, U. S. A.,

has been transferred from the camp in the south to Fort Constitution and reported for duty at the fort last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary P. Dixon of this city has announced the engagement of her daughter, Jennie Dixon, to Joseph W. Walker of Spokane, Washington.

Reports indicate that the benefit dance to be given at the Casino at Central Park on next Thursday evening, the proceeds of which will be utilized in defraying the expenses of organizing a baseball team in this city, is going to be a great success. Hallworth's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, which is an assurance of good dance music.

John H. Grover, a well known resident of this city, died at his home, 16 Sixth street Tuesday forenoon, aged 76 years and 1 month. Mr. Grover was born in Harrington, the son of Daniel and Olive (Husband) Grover. He came to this city from Newbury, Me., more than 50 years ago, and has since resided here. For years he was a faithful employee of the Boston and Maine railroad, owing to ill health he retired several years ago.

FAMOUS STAR ARRESTED

Sarcasm Missed by Reporters When Mabel Normand Pleads Being Scared.

Several weeks prior to the release of "Mickey," featuring Mabel Normand, Miss Normand was arrested and fined $2.00 by Judge House for violating traffic regulations, in trying to learn the details of running an automobile while she used the English side of the thoroughfare. Spurring the opportunity for further publicity, Miss Normand was sporting of her remarks to the reporters to this very limited extent:

"I was so scared I didn't know what to do." This from the lady who does the breathlessly venturesome "stunts" during the progress of "Mickey," now at the Colonial Theatre, creates a problem, to wit: How did Miss Normand keep her face straight on conveying her terror at driving an automobile at snail's pace while being "chaperoned" into the mysteries of motor driving? Lucky thing she was arrested before the opening of "Mickey" or those reporters would have ripped the sarcasm.

Mickey plainly defines and illustrates the word "thrill," as applied to motion pictures, as she swings along from cliff to cliff in a mountain range of recklessness. In "Mickey" there is everything imaginable that might be conceived by the most inventive producer, past or present, to put "thrills" into films and project "panache" upon the screen. Mickey proves herself the feminine and artistically concentrated essence of a Chaplin-Fairbanks combination of humor and agility. And it's mighty real, taking a dangerous fall off a racing horse or hanging from the top of a building while the brave hero is forced to postpone temporarily rescuing her.

Scared? Not a bit of it, Mabel says. That's all in her day's work.

"FLO-FLO" DELIGHTS BOSTON AUDIENCES

Lingerie, Lifting Lyrics and Laughter Reign.

The present Boston theatrical season's greatest musical comedy success is the home won by John Cort's musical sensation, "Flo-Flo," which has been crawling the Tuamot Theatre for the past six weeks and has now outlasted all its rivals in the field. The reason for this is because it dispenses such fun and music delights coupled with such a costume display as has never been exhibited in the hub of New England. Folks of both sexes revel in the famous lingerie parade in which there is exhibited upon beautiful young lady models the most ravishing examples of midday's frocks and farrowies in bewildering splendor. From boudoir to bridal costume there is shown everything that delights the feminine heart, and the well recognized truth that men and women are a pleasure in observing the fanes of feminine toilette as the other sex finds ample proof in the manner in which they respond.

But it must not be considered that the lingerie display forms the main appeal of the show. It is the most humorous and best played of musical plays with real plot and merry situations. Its story deals with incidents in the life of "Flo-Flo" the model in a smart woman's wear shop to whom we come various characters, and she is the central figure of love romance. The contributing personages on whom devolve the fun of the piece are the masculine manager of the shop, and the two wayward young men employed as floorwalkers. Through them the fun flows fast and furious, and the lifting lyrics together with the attendant dances dress the action with tuneful liveliness that never allows the spectator to feel restless.

Out-of-town patrons are assured of special attention to mail orders. Matinees are given given on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Will Retain the Position of President of Street Lines and Light Companies.

FIRED AT NEIGHBOR HE THOUGHT WAS ONE OF THE BURGLARS

Kittery Man Put On Night Scene Fit for the Movies.

Two Kittery people, residents of the Painesville district certainly put on something fit for the movies a few nights ago. The principal actor in the scene is alive today or not in a hospital nursing a bullet wound is due to the poor marksmanship of his neighbors. Just before midnight one of these men heard some queer noises around his house and at once he decided he had a call from burglars who have been terrorizing the town.

With hardly any clothing on he grabbed a gun and ran out of the house into the yard with the gun ready for action. Finding no crook on the grounds he put his face up to the dining room window to tell his wife that there was no need of any alarm and not to worry as the house was safe. In the meantime his neighbor across the way who was on picket duty in his own home sighted the other man with his face up to the window and got in action at once.

Burglar, sure he thought and blazed away at the form in the dark.

The man who had been talking to his wife at the window thought it was all off with him. At the report of the gun he concluded that the burglars were taking a shot at him and he beat it for the inside of his house pretty quick the third party was heard from who inquired: "What is the matter, Mr. burglars?" "Sure, replied the man who fired the shot, "Did you get him," was the second question.

"I can't say, but I made him run and I hope I hit him."

Anyhow, wife is lucky that hubby got back safely and it will be a real laugh the next time before he gets in the front line trenches with the gun.

Regular meeting of Mercedes Aerle No. 525, P. O. O. This evening at eight o'clock, at Eagle's hall, Daniel street.

Per Order, M. J. LYNCH, President.
